CHERYL REEVE

HEAD COACH

NOTABLE

- WNBA Champion (2013, 2011, 2008, 2006)
- WNBA Coach of the Year (2011)
- WNBA Finals appearances (2013, 2012, 2011, 2008, 2007, 2006, 2001)
- Enters 2015 season with the highest winning percentage in WNBA history (.694)

Cheryl Reeve completed her fifth season as Lynx head coach in 2014, leading the Lynx to a 25-9 record and their fourth consecutive postseason appearance. Since taking over as Lynx head coach, Reeve owns a career 118-52 record, the most coaching wins in franchise history. She was initially named head coach on Dec. 8, 2009, taking over for former head coach Jennifer Gillom. On Dec. 6, 2012, Reeve signed a multi-year contract extension with the club.

Under Reeve's tutelage, Minnesota became the first team in league history to string together four consecutive 25+ win seasons. Reeve has led the Lynx to WNBA championships in 2011 and 2013 and trips to the WNBA Finals in three consecutive seasons (2011-13). Minnesota's 105 regular season wins over the last four seasons match Los Angeles (1999-2002) for the best four-year aggregate win total in WNBA history. Since taking over in 2010, Reeve's .694 winning percentage ranks first in league history, one of just three coaches to win at least 60% of their games (Van Chancellor, .655; Michael Cooper, .650).

Reeve guided the Lynx to the first championship in franchise history in 2011, being named the WNBA Coach of the Year after leading Minnesota to a league-best 27-7 regular season record. The Lynx made a 14-game improvement from 2010, marking the second-largest single-season win increase in WNBA history.

Reeve's coaching resume includes 26 years as both an assistant and a head coach at the collegiate and WNBA levels. In 2009, Reeve served as an assistant coach with the WNBA's Detroit Shock, and was promoted to the team's general manager position just three games into the season. Hired by three-time WNBA champion head coach Bill Laimbeer, Reeve joined the Shock coaching staff in 2006 and helped the franchise reach the WNBA Finals in each of her first three years, winning WNBA titles in 2006 and 2008. During her four years with Detroit, the team held an 87-49 win/loss record and won at least 18 games each season, including 24 in 2007. Reeve also served as the Shock's director of player personnel in 2008.

Reeve got her start in the WNBA with the Charlotte Sting in 2001 when she joined Anne Donovan's staff as an assistant coach. After posting an 8-24 record in 2000, Charlotte turned things around in Reeve's first year, going 18-14 en route to advancing to the WNBA Finals. Reeve spent the 2002 season again in Charlotte before joining Dan Hughes' coaching staff in Cleveland for the 2003 season. Reeve returned to the Sting in 2004 and 2005 before joining Detroit in 2006. In Reeve's nine years as an assistant in the WNBA, she compiled a .543 winning percentage (163-137 W/L), including seven postseason appearances and advancing to the WNBA Finals four times.

Before joining the WNBA coaching ranks, Reeve spent 12 years coaching collegiately, including a five-year stint as head coach at Indiana State from 1995-2000. Reeve guided the Sycamores to the program's first postseason berth in 20 years following the 1998-99 campaign.

Reeve also spent five years as an assistant coach at George Washington. During that time, the Colonials posted five 20-win seasons, captured three Atlantic 10 Conference Championships and appeared in four NCAA Tournaments. Reeve got her start in coaching at her alma mater, La Salle, as an assistant coach for two seasons.

As a player at La Salle, Reeve led the nationally-ranked Explorers to a 25-5 record in 1987-1988. She was named All-Metro Atlantic Conference and was an All-Big 5 selection as a senior. Reeve holds the school record for most games started (110) and ranks fourth on La Salle's career assist leader board (420).

Reeve excelled athletically and academically at La Salle, graduating with a degree in computer science/management information systems. A Rhodes Scholar nominee, Reeve received both a MAAC Scholar-Athlete Post Graduate Award and a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1988. She went on to earn her master's degree in business administration from her alma mater while also serving two years as an assistant coach for the Explorers.

JIM PETERSEN

ASSISTANT COACH

Jim Petersen completed his sixth season as the Lynx assistant coach in 2014. In 2009, Petersen was hired by then head coach Don Zierden as assistant coach, and remained behind the bench when Jennifer Gillom took over the reigns prior to the start of the season. New head coach Cheryl Reeve retained Petersen on her staff for the 2010 season.

With the Lynx, Petersen is responsible for the team's scouting efforts, talent evaluation, and player development with a focus on the post players.

In addition to his coaching duties with the Lynx, Petersen has spent the past 13 seasons with the Minnesota Timberwolves broadcast staff.

Petersen spent his eight-year NBA career (1984-92) with the Houston Rockets, Sacramento Kings and Golden State Warriors. Petersen finished with career averages of 6.9 ppg and 4.8 rpg in 491 games, 208 starts.

A native of Minneapolis, Petersen won the Minnesota Mr. Basketball award as a high school senior in 1980. Prior to his NBA playing and broadcasting careers, Petersen played four seasons for the University of Minnesota Golden Gophers, winning the Big Ten Championship in 1982.

After leaving the NBA, Petersen worked for the NBA Players Association in their player programs division, facilitating seminars in NBA locker rooms on topics such as AIDS awareness, substance abuse and career/financial planning for life after basketball.

Petersen currently resides in Wayzata along with his wife, Tika, and son, Sanjay.

SHELLEY PATTERSON

ASSISTANT COACH

The 2014 season was Patterson's fourth year as an Assistant Coach and third year with the Minnesota Lynx.

With the Lynx, Patterson provides support in opponent scout preparation and game planning as well as individual player development.

Prior to coming to the Lynx, Patterson, a 22-year coaching veteran in both the professional and collegiate ranks, spent the previous three years on Brian Agler's staff in Seattle. Prior to that, Patterson spent parts of eight years working in different capacities with five WNBA organizations.

Patterson began her career in Houston where she served as Director of Basketball Operations and won a WNBA Championship with the Comets during the 1999 WNBA season. She then spent four years (2000-2003) working as an assistant coach with the Indiana Fever before joining the coaching staff of the Phoenix Mercury in 2004.

In addition to her work in the WNBA, Patterson served as head coach for the National Women's Basketball League's Chicago Blaze in 2005 and worked as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Rage of the ABL during the 1998-99 season.

Patterson began her coaching career in 1989 as a recruiting coordinator at Indiana State University and has held positions at Ohio University, the University of Arizona, Wake Forest and Dayton.
